

H. A. Browne

Dear: Prof: 22 April 1871.

Dear Sir

It is very important that the North Americans should have a broader estimate of the late books of Rev. Darwin and Rev. Stewart. After the most careful enquiry I can find but two persons competent to do it; yourself and Prof. Weymann. The latter is out of the question, and I have no choice but to make it a matter of convenience with you. If you refuse, the subject must be put into hands which will do no good and will perhaps do harm.

I would like a long article of 30 pages, to be ready certainly by the 20th May. Failing that, I would like one of 20 pages. If this is impossible, I would be glad of a book-notices of fifteen pages;

and, to conclude, I will publish with pleasure any notices, of whatever size, you will consent to give me.

I am very truly Yrs

J. Henry Adams
